

CIBC Asset Management sub-advisor change

Effective January 2017, CIBC Asset Management will change its sub-advisor on the U.S. Value Fund (CIBC AM) (USBVR) from Met West to Rothschild. The new manager's investment style employs a quality and relative approach to identify stocks that are attractively valued with improving business prospects by using a combination of quantitative and fundamental research. The fund's investment objective remains unchanged and no action is required.
