

Sentry portfolio manager changes

Effective March 7, 2017, Sentry hired Paul Johnson to lead Sentry's global equity team and take over as lead manager of the international equity component of the Global Income Fund (AGGI). Aubrey Hearn will be responsible for the U.S. equity component of the fund. The transition will take two or three months. James Dutkiewicz continues to manage the fixed income component of the fund. The fund's investment objective remains unchanged and no action is required.
