MFS announces new CIO changes

MFS Investments has announced that effective March 1, 2020, the firm will incorporate a regional, co-Chief Investment Officer leadership structure across Asia, Europe and the Americas. The change is to improve collaboration and coordination within the Equity research and portfolio management teams.

The co-Chief Investment Officers will retain their current portfolio management responsibilities and will report to MFS' Chief Investment Officer Ted Mahoney. Mahoney oversees the firm's global investment platform, which comprises more than 200 investment professionals across investment research, portfolio management, trading and investment risk.

Appointed co- Chief Investment Officer leadership team:

- Asia: Simon Gresham and Jeanine Thompson
- Europe: Christopher Jennings and David Shindler
- Americas: Kevin Beatty and Alison O'Neill

There are no changes to the MFS funds we offer and no action is required.
