

CIBC GAM Announces Portfolio Management Update for the Canadian Equity Dividend and Income Strategies

Effective May 1, 2026, Crystal Maloney, Head of Equity Research and Portfolio Manager has left CIBC Global Asset Management (CGAM) after 12 years of service. Natalie Taylor, Portfolio Manager for CGAM's Canadian Equity Dividend and Income strategies, has assumed Crystal's portfolio manager responsibilities on the CIBC Canadian Equity All Cap Pool. Security selection will continue to be led by sector analysts.

In addition, Canadian equity analysts that reported to Crystal as Head of Equity Research, will now report to Daniel Greenspan, Senior Analyst & Portfolio Manager, who has over 25 years of experience and currently manages CGAM's Energy, Precious Metals, and Resource strategies.

The funds' fee, investment objective and style remain unchanged, and no action is required.
